PARENT PARTICIPATION

Peggy Brewin is a cooperative preschool, and parents are involved in the running and success of the school in the following ways:

- Parent Helper Days: Parents take turns helping in the classroom on parent helper days, and in this way are able to participate in their child's first school experience.*When there are 9 or more children, a parent helper is required.
- Fundraising: Peggy Brewin relies on fundraising efforts by parent volunteers to keep the program available for our community. Parents are required to serve on at least one fundraising committee.

All parents are encouraged to get involved with the running of the school, to express ideas they might have for its improvement, and to share any special talents they might like to contribute. For families who cannot participate in fundraising (planning or volunteering time), there is a buy-out option that will be discussed at the parent meeting in August.

I understand that I am responsible for

- (a) acting as a parent helper on duty days,
- (b) serving on at least one fundraising committee
- (c) helping with the other fundraisers, including volunteering on some weekends.

Yes, I understand.

I have questions about parent participation and would like a Peggy Brewin representative to contact me.

Specify preferred method of contact:

Does your child have any significant fear(s) that the school should be aware of?

Do you, as a parent/guardian, have any significant concerns?
